

FRONTMATEC

Sales & Operations Planning Specialist

Are you passionate about supply chain and do you have a strong and highly analytical profile? Do you want to be part of an ambitious Global Operations team with an agenda to transform into a truly excellent customer-driven supply chain?

We have the full, global responsibility for forecasting and SCM at Frontmateg on both the strategic and tactical level and need a new colleague to create our S&OP function.

Your main responsibilities

- ✓ Lead/facilitate the monthly S&OP process with regional sales and production companies balancing the end-2-end supply/demand plan
- ✓ Support the preparation for the global executive S&OP deck and relevant scenarios
- ✓ Track demand plan (S&OP forecast) vs. actual sales
- ✓ Ensure efficient handling of forecast deviation striving towards best customer satisfaction within the limitations of ensuring stability in the supply chain
- ✓ Closely cooperate with local forecasters in sales companies in order to continuously improve forecast processes and forecast accuracy
- ✓ Build collaborative relationships with key stakeholder in production, product marketing and product development in order to manage phase in and phase out of products and drive life cycle management in the supply chain
- ✓ Provide leadership outside of Sales and Operations to help driving positive results for the S&OP process and the organization

Your background

You recently graduated with a Master's degree in Supply Chain Management or Operations Management, Bachelor's degree in Production Engineering or equivalent, preferably with a few years relevant experience

Further, you

- ✓ Have insight in performance management tools and operational KPI's
- ✓ Are a skilled user of ERP systems and planning systems preferably Robex and AX2012
- ✓ Strong user of MS Office, especially Excel and PowerPoint
- ✓ Possess strong analytical skills, experience with large data set and data analysis
- ✓ Have excellent oral and written communication skills in English

You are

A self-motivated and proactive team player. You are excellent in driving projects and moving processes forward, acting as an anchoring point for collection of input from many different stakeholders and key contributors.
